#9 Foxtail Reply Envelope

A Foxtail bangtail looks like a #9 bangtail but is a lot cleverer, because the donor's name shows through the window of #10's you already have in your office.

By using Foxtails, a fundraising campaign can be run on a shoestring budget, and still have great success.

How they work:

- Email us the non-variable copy, and within 24 hours receive a proof at no charge (the variable copy is printed by you or your direct mail house).
- After ink jet addressing the variable copy, the Foxtail's seal flap and pledge form are folded backwards allowing recipient's name and address to show through the window of your standard #10. Mail.
- The recipient fills out the Foxtail (pledge form), detaches, and mails back to you.

What you'll need:

1. Standard #10 window envelopes (we can provide if needed).
2. Perhaps a covering letter (we can print if needed).
3. Foxtail reply envelopes which incorporate a neat, legible, fileable pledge form (available only at Sheppard Envelope Mfg. Co.).
